Happy Summer! Wouldn't we all like to be on vacation? I had a nice little trip back to my home state of Alabama for my high school reunion. It was a blast but I'm glad to be back home in SF.

I'm sure you would like to be on vacation too, but consider this. Any time you think other job seekers may be taking a break is the time you should redouble your efforts.

This issue of our newsletter has some good news, some helpful tips, and a 25% discount coupon which I hope you'll use and also forward to your friends and colleagues.

Thank you, Mauri Schwartz

Good News on the Job Front

Good News

Just the other day, it was announced that California's unemployment rate is still very high at 12.5%. It is troublesome especially since this number is probably artificially low because it doesn't count people who are working temporarily for the census or in frustration have stopped looking for a job.

But there is some really good news. There are many... click here for more good news for jobs

Outplacement Services

Successful Client

Since we are one of the few outplacement firms that take on individual job seekers as clients directly, many people don't realize that yes, we do have corporate clients.

One of these clients is Guy DeFlorio, Chief Technology Officer, Mutual Materials Company in Seattle, "I recently hired Career Insiders to provide outplacement services. The results were outstanding! Career Insiders provided resume, search strategy, and interviewing services as well as ongoing coaching to ensure that our laid off staff would be successful in this competitive job market. In fact,..." click here for more details from Mr. DeFlorio

Our Partners

Mark Porter

We would like to acknowledge some special friends of Career Insiders and are proud to refer you to them. Financial Planner Mark Porter has very graciously hosted our workshops in Ameriprise's classroom in SF. The following recruiters have been a terrific source of referrals: Kim Clancy (legal), Kristin Clevenger (biotech), Mike Mayeri (executive sales), Victor Namuche (finance and accounting). We have more...stay tuned for more mentions in our next issue.

Our Customers

We have the best customers and I want to thank all of you who have sung our praises to your friends and colleagues. You are the most effective advertising we could ever hope to have. Please let us know what we can do for you.

Thank you!!
